Marco Lo Muscio is one of the most versatile musicians of his generation: organist, pianist and composer. Marco cooperates for recordings and concerts with David Jackson (Van Der Graaf Generator) and John and Steve Hackett (the former guitarist of Genesis). He graduated in piano with full honours "Cum Laude" at "Licinio Refice" academy of music guided by Maestro Tonino Maiorani, and later studied for three years with the great pianist Sergio Fiorentino attaining the Diploma of Advanced Studies with full honours at the academy "Bartolomeo Cristofori". He also graduated in Pedagogy "Cum Laude", guided by prof. Giulio Sforza, in the University of "Rome Tre" and in organ with prof. James Edward Goettsche. He has given more than 700 concerts as part of organ and piano festivals at important venues in Europe, Russia and USA. (New York, Boston, Moscow, St. Petersburg, London, Oxford, Cambridge, Canterbury, Leipzig, Paris, Milan, Rome, Scandinavia, etc...) Marco's music is published by the Italian firm "Erreffe Musica", and has been played world wide (Europe, Russia, Singapore, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, USA) by renowned musicians such as: Christopher Herrick, Thomas Trotter, Kevin Bowyer, David Briggs, John Scott, Roger Sayer, Stephen Farr, Andrew Canning, Aivars Kalejs, Alessandro Bianchi, Massimo Nosetti, Corrado Cavalli, Martin Setchell, Michael Eckerle, Willibald Guggenmos, Fredrik Sixten, Carson Cooman, Carol Williams, Colin Walsh, Andrea Padova, etc...The CDs of Marco were broadcasted on Vatican Radio, BBC, TV2000, TV Russia, Radio Bavaria. Since 2004, Marco is the Artistic Director of "International Summer Organ Festival in Rome." In 2013 he started to recording for the famous British label "Priory Records" on the series "Great European Organs."
